The CORE Revelation Hip Hop dance scholarship has been awarded annually to youth and young adults in the community since 2008. This student uses dance to creatively impact their community for positive change and to better the lives of others.

Qualifications: All applicants must currently be in grade seven, high school or post-secondary school in the Lower Mainland or Fraser Valley, British Columbia, Canada.

Scholarships: Two recipients will be awarded this year. Scholarship includes:

- $150.00 to use towards dance education
- Full tuition to Revelation Workshop (Fall 2011)
- CORE Revelation T-Shirt, Lanyard and Wristband

Scholarship Applications: Each scholarship application shall be no longer than 500 words stating how the individual will use the scholarship to further their education in Hip Hop dance. The individual should highlight any community service in a dance capacity. This may include, but is not limited to performances, volunteering, show production, teaching/educating and media.

Each applicant must complete the profile listed below, include two letters of reference and proof of enrollment in school (copy of report card or transcript.) Additional supporting materials are optional and may include:

- photos (maximum of 5)
- videos or video links (maximum of 10 minutes total)
- website links (maximum of 2)
- press clippings (maximum of 2)
- resume

No materials will be returned

All scholarship applications must be received by Friday, May 27, 2011 at midnight. Applications will only be accepted by email at info@corerevelation.net.

Time line:

Monday, April 11, 2011 – Scholarship applications available

Friday, May 27, 2011 - Scholarship applications due

Monday, May 30 – Friday, June 10, 2011 – Scholarship committee meets
